Location

Westhafen is a former inland port that has developed into a unique residential quarter. "Living by the water" is the motto and delights the residents of the port. The founders of Mainwesthafen are themselves long-time residents on the pier and can advise you as owners and interested parties from their own experience. We are not conventional brokers, but your future neighbours.

Westhafen has developed into one of Frankfurt's top residential areas and is impressive because of its central location and its immediate proximity to the Main. Surrounded by water, one has the feeling of living on a cruise ship on the harbour island. You can reach the city centre via the Promenade am Main within a 10 minute walk and the main railway station within 5 minutes. Frankfurt Airport is only a few minutes away by car or public transport. In addition, the excellent location means that you can quickly reach the neighbouring motorways in all directions. Shopping facilities and gastronomy can be found in the immediate vicinity.
